Science, Intuition and Gaia.

In this film Stephan Harding explores the history of science, the world of nature and Gaia Theory, he believes that to tackle the current ecological crisis, we need an expanded science that cultivates intuition alongside conventional rational knowledge and we need to actively develop a deep connection to nature.

The film features stunning photography, plus interviews with leading thinkers and activists, including Fritjof Capra, Vandana Shiva, Iain McGilchrist Brian Goodwin and Jules Cashford and Satish Kumar.

Animate Earth has been screened and supported by The Gaia Foundation, The Quakers, Ecobuddhism.org, Schumacher College, The Schumacher Centenary Festival , Artists for Plant Earth, ABOCA for Ecology, The Flux Foundation Norway, COP15, Resurgence Magazine, Natures at Wilderness Festival, and the RSPB Scotland.
